Simtec Consult Limited is committed to conducting business honestly, fairly and with integrity. We take a zero-tolerance approach to bribery and corruption and will maintain proportionate procedures designed to prevent bribery by our staff and anyone acting on our behalf.

1. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy supports compliance with the Bribery Act 2010. It applies to directors, employees, workers, consultants, contractors, subcontractors, agents and other persons performing services for or on behalf of Simtec, in the United Kingdom or overseas.

Bribery includes offering, promising, giving, requesting or accepting a financial or other advantage with the intention of inducing or rewarding improper performance. It also includes bribery of foreign public officials.

2. RESPONSIBILITIES

The Managing Director has overall responsibility for this policy, for ensuring that bribery risks are considered and for approving higher-risk gifts, hospitality, appointments and transactions. Everyone covered by this policy must read it, act with integrity and report concerns promptly.

3. PROHIBITED CONDUCT

No person acting for Simtec may:

- offer, promise, give, request or accept a bribe, kickback or other improper advantage;
- make a facilitation payment, except where payment is necessary to protect immediate health or safety and is reported as soon as possible;
- use a third party to do anything that would be prohibited if done directly;
- make a political or charitable contribution to obtain an improper business advantage;
- retaliate against anyone who raises a genuine concern or refuses to participate in bribery.

4. GIFTS AND HOSPITALITY

Reasonable and proportionate gifts or hospitality may be offered or accepted only where they have a legitimate business purpose, are not intended to influence a decision, are permitted by the recipient's rules and could withstand public scrutiny. Cash and cash-equivalent gifts are prohibited.

Any gift or hospitality with a value above £50, or any lower-value item that could create an actual or perceived conflict, requires prior written approval from the Managing Director. Approved and declined items must be recorded in the gifts and hospitality register. Repeated items from the same source must be considered cumulatively.

5. CONFLICTS, THIRD PARTIES AND PROCUREMENT

Actual or potential conflicts of interest must be disclosed to the Managing Director. Simtec will conduct proportionate checks before appointing agents, subcontractors or business partners, particularly where they will represent Simtec, deal with public bodies, operate in higher-risk jurisdictions or control payments. Contracts should include appropriate compliance obligations and termination rights where proportionate.

6. RECORDS, COMMUNICATION AND MONITORING

All invoices, expenses, gifts, hospitality, commissions and other transactions must be recorded accurately and completely. Off-book accounts, misleading descriptions and false documents are prohibited. This policy will be communicated at induction and refreshed in proportion to role and risk. Compliance and the gifts register will be reviewed at least annually.

7. REPORTING CONCERNS

Concerns should be raised promptly with the Managing Director or under the Whistleblowing Policy. Where the concern involves the Managing Director, it may be raised with Simtec's external legal adviser using contact details issued separately. Reports will be handled sensitively and retaliation will not be tolerated.

8. BREACHES

A breach may result in disciplinary action, termination of a contractor or supplier relationship, recovery of losses and referral to the police or another authority where appropriate.

9. REVIEW

This policy will be reviewed at least annually and sooner following a relevant legal change, material incident or significant change to Simtec's activities or supply chain.
